Executive Director
1993 to Present

The Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission (OIAC) is a state agency statutorily created in 1967 to serve as liaison between the Executive and Legislative branches of state government and Oklahoma's Tribal Nations. In 2011, the Commission celebrates its 44th year of service to the Great State of Oklahoma.

The Commission recognizes the contributions made by our many tribal nations and the information contained in this directory is designed to provide a snapshot of the 38 federally recognized tribes of Oklahoma. This information has been provided by each tribal nation from responses to our "Annual Tribal Survey." The Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission appreciates the support of the Oklahoma tribal nations who have contributed toward the production of this publication and to the State of Oklahoma for the funding for this important resource.

ABOUT THIS EDITION

From the Executive Director

The Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission conducts an annual tribal survey to gather resource information to be used in this pictorial directory and our "Oklahoma Indian Nations Information Handbook." Without the cooperation of Oklahoma's sovereign nations, this publication would not be possible.

We hope this pictorial directory, as well as our other publications, prove to be useful resources.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission would like to express our gratitude to Oklahoma's 38 tribal governments for their cooperation in providing photos and information on their respective tribe/nation and for their continued support of our agency. Every effort was made to ensure the accuracy of the information you have provided and we thank you for your contribution.

We would also like to thank the State of Oklahoma and the Legislature for providing the funding for our office so that the publications we produce can continue to be a resource for the citizens of Oklahoma.

Finally, I would also like to publicly thank the OIAC staff for the work on this product and our Board of Commissioners for their input and support throughout the various stages of development of this publication.
