Dear Madam:

Re: Emma W. Glenn Pension #4983.

Herewith inclosed find pension warrant in the above numbered and styled pension, which was issued on July 18th. Mrs. Glenn died on the 25th day of July, which was yesterday, and she leaves as her two heirs, John Crider and Frank Crider, grandsons. These two boys are children of her daughter, who is also dead. I can furnish you with affidavits to this effect and thought possibly that this check could be paid to them without the necessity and expense of having an administrator appointed. Her estate, of course, is entitled to the $115.00 represented by this warrant. The money will be used to defray funeral expenses.

Will you kindly advise me the requirements of your office at as early a date as possible.

In Re: Pension Warrant of Emma W. Glenn.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 26th inst., I am herewith returning to you Pension Warrant No. 98924, since the estate of Mrs. Emma W. Glenn is entitled to this check. I would advise that one of the grandsons of Mrs. Glenn indorse this warrant with her name, by himself as grandson, having two persons who know him to sign it with him. When cashed the money should be applied on burial expenses of the deceased pensioner.

Thanking you for your kindly interest in this matter, and asking that you please extend our sympathy to the two grandsons, and tell them that we are sorry to lose Mrs. Glenn from our Pension Roll, I am

Very truly yours,

CLERK.
