To celebrate Edith K. Gaylord's 100th birthday and Women's History Month, the Oklahoma History Center, Inasmuch Foundation and the Oklahoma Historical Society present Oklahoma student artwork exemplifying the theme of "Women Breaking Barriers."

Students from across the state participated in this fun and exciting art contest celebrating the life of Edith Kinney Gaylord by following in her footsteps as they created original images and used their own words to examine the theme. The student art contest was held in three divisions of kindergarten through 3rd grade, 4th through 8th grades, and 9th through 12th grades. There will be a short ceremony at the Oklahoma History Center on Monday, March 21, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Admission is free. The winning artwork will be displayed and the student artists will
